

北京理工大学法学院

The Invitation for the 5th Migration Law Forum: Migration Law and the Construction of China's Free Trade Zone

The Exit and Entry Law of PRC and the Regulation of Aliens' Entry and Exit Administration of PRC are entered into force in 2013, and the China's Free Trade Zone, Shanghai is set up in the same year. The 5th Migration Law Forum will be held to deeply explore the issues of law, policy, population, society; economy related to these two laws and China's Free Trade Zone, as well the development of migration law in developed countries. Scholars, officers and practitioners in the fields of migration, migration law and relevant fields will be invited.

Conference Theme: Migration law and the Construction of China's Free Trade Zone

Hosts: College of Humanities and Law, Shanghai Business School, and School of Law, Beijing Institute of Technology

Organizer: Research Institute of International Migration, and Research Institute of Commercial Law, Shanghai Business School

Venue: No71, West Zhongshan Road, Shanghai, China

Date: May 31st, 2014, Saturday

Please send the filled registration form and abstract to us before April 15, 2014 and send the full paper to us before May 15, 2014. Registration fee is not required. The accommodation and meals during the meeting will be provided free of charge with the participant whose paper is accepted and who will make presentation at the Forum.

The Contact person and email address:

LIU,Guofu

School of Law, Beijing Institute of Technology, China

australia2030@163.com

Registration Form of the 5th Migration Law Forum:

Migration Law and the Construction of China's Free Trade Zone

Date:

Surname:	Given name:	Gender:	Age:
Employer:	Position:
Contact address:
Email:
Telephone number:
Arrival date:	Leaving date:
Topic of the paper:
Abstract of the paper:
Others:

Contact person: LIU,Guofu, School of Law, Beijing Institute of Technology, China

Email address: australia2030@163.com